September 2021

There is nothing I can not master with the help of Christ. Philippians 4:13

Adaptation

The challenge is to adapt to a constantly changing environment. As part of learning how to adapt, I have changed the format of the newsletter. I have had to prioritize what I do during the week and the time spent on each project. The main focus will be turning out the bulletin and worship service each week. There will no posting on social media of the weekly sermon. Over time the situation will be resolved. Thanks for your understanding and patience.
